A Property Number, Name and B Owner Numbers - The first line of remittance advice detail will indicate the FourPoint property number, a five-digit numeric code with a two-digit suffix. This line will also give the property name along with the county and state where the property is located. This line will be repeated each time revenue is disbursed from an additional property. You will also note your FourPoint owner identification number that will be shown in the lower left hand corner of the remittance advice detail.

D Prod Date – Indicates the month of oil, gas or natural gas liquids production.

E Product – Describes the product produced and sold. Oil, gas or plant products will be indicated. Plant products will refer to natural gas liquids.

F Interest Type – This column will indicate the type of interest owned in any given property. The interest types will be RI (royalty interest), ORRI (overriding royalty interest), WI (working interest) and PRS (proportionate royalty share).

G Deck Decimal, Dist Decimal – This column will contain two rows for each production month, property and product combination. The first row will contain your interest ownership decimal according to FourPoint records. The second row shows the disbursement decimal for this revenue transaction.

I Gross Volume, Owner Volume – These two rows will provide the gross and owner net share of volumes sold during the given production month.

K Gross Value, Owner Value – These rows indicate the dollar value received for the gross and owner net share of volumes sold during the given production month.

M Gross Taxes, Owner Taxes – Like volume and value, these rows will provide the gross and owner net share of production taxes attributable to the value of oil, gas or plant products sold during any given production month. As with the other attributes these taxes relate to a specific production month, property and product combination.

O Gross Deducts, Owner Deducts – Reflects the gross and owner net share of any gathering, transportation or processing charges paid and deducted from the value of production sold during any given production month.

Q Gross Net, Owner Net – These rows present the result of subtracting gross and owner net shares of taxes and deducts from value in order to arrive at the net amount disbursed for the sale of production during any given production month.

S Check Number – The check number will be indicated in the upper right corner of the remittance advice detail.
